CALCULATION OF DIVISIONS AND HIGH POINT AWARDS

Hunter/Jumper/Pleasure Division Placements and High Point calculation:

First	10	Ties broken by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Most blue ribbons, then</li><li>• Most horses beat, then</li><li>• Over fences classes, then</li><li>• Special or Handy class</li></ul>
Second	6
Third	4
Fourth	2
Fifth	1
Sixth	0.5

For Dressage: High Point will be based on the best single test per horse/rider combination.

Division placements will be based on the average of the two tests. In case of a tie, the horse/rider with the highest single score is the winner; if the highest scores are the same, the next highest scores will be considered until the tie is broken.

For CT: High Point is given to highest placed eligible horse in each Division. Division placements will be based on the horse's placing in the CT division.

DESTINATION:

Aiken, South Carolina

---

Recognized by Southern Living magazine as the “Best Small Town” of 2018, Aiken, South Carolina grew in popularity in the late 1800s as a “winter colony” sanctuary for northerners who sought a warmer climate for their personal health, and horseback activities. Equine enthusiasts quickly recognized the benefits that the region’s natural footing provided underhoof, and a booming training ground was born.

Today, Aiken has evolved into a year-round destination for riders across many disciplines, and attracted spectators seeking the thrill of flat races, steeplechase, and polo. Birders will find plenty to do in between outings, and no doubt spot many feathered creatures along the way. The quaint downtown and adjacent historic horse district hosts many hot spots, from dining and entertainment to culture and shopping. Even with its equestrian appeal, Aiken is known for its many pet-friendly establishments and entices all animal lovers.

When it comes to swinging through town, Southern Living summed it up well: “One word of caution: Some of Aiken’s visitors have been known to come for the weekend and never leave, so you shouldn’t pack light.”
